Hoopeston to receive $230,000 state housing rehabilitation grant

Approximately 15 local homes to benefit from DCCA funds

Some local homes will get a facelift thanks to a state grant.

Hoopeston will receive a $230,000 housing rehabilitation grant from the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs, said Mayor Bob Ault Monday.

"I haven't seen anything official, but I've gotten lots of phone calls," Ault said. "It's fantastic, I think."

The grant will provide an average of $17,000 for 15 Hoopeston homes, according to Scott Rose, housing program manager for the Champaign County Regional Planning Commission.

Rose has been hired by the city the last two years to fill out housing grant applications. Both times, the city has been successful in receiving a grant.

Repairs will be done in three areas: health and safety, weatherization/energy conservation and general property improvements.

The first area includes structural and roof work, as well as electrical, plumbing and heating repairs. The second phase includes insulation, windows and doors, and the third area consists of siding, soffit and fascia work, Rose said.

This is the second time the city has applied for housing rehabilitation money. In 1995, the city received approximately $300,000 which was used for 18 projects.

Along with the application for the $230,000 grant, city officials applied for a $50,000 grant from the Illinois Housing Development Authority. Word on that grant has not been received yet.

City officials have targeted the northeast side as the
